SUBMISSION RESPONSES

This submission was provided as an attachment only. The attachment is provided on the following pages of this document.

I believe in strong environmental protections. Climate change is an existential threat to the planet and to my child's future. Companies must be closely regulated to meet our global commitments and to serve as leadership for the world. I also believe getting ahead of the curve on climate change is a tremendous economic opportunity and that it is crucial to reframe the national debate along those lines. Finally, I believe there should be an open-minded attitude towards nuclear power given our current carbon crisis.
